Accompanied by ten of their friends, Albert De la Ossa, son of O. O. De la Ossa, a prominent resident of Lochiel, and Miss Felicitas Bustamante, also of Lochiel, came to Nogales Thursday and were married the next day by the Rev Father Duval at the Catholic church, after which a joyous wedding party was enjoyed by the newly married pair and their guests, before starting on a short wedding journey.

The bridegroom, a member of one of the oldest families in Arizona hereditary owners of the famous De la Ossa ranch at Lochiel, is one of several brothers, four of whom are as yet unmarried, and has one sister.

It is the custom of the family to come to Nogales for the ceremony of marriage, this being the third visit for the purpose, when the senior De la Ossa conducts his charges to the Hotel Burton to remain for the night preceding the weddings.
