

Mexican Border War

12th Infantry Decamps

The Border Vidette, Nogales, Arizona May 19, 1917. Page 3.

Contributed by Jean Walker, August 6, 2025

Orders were received here Tuesday for the remainder of the 12th Infantry and two companies of the 3th Infantry, to immediately entrain, the former for San Francisco and the latter for Yuma. It is said that the famous 12th, will be divided into two sections at San Francisco and each section will form the nucleus of two new regiments to be formed, the 62nd and 63rd regiments. Everybody wishes the fighting Twelfth, good luck.